Rome's hotel scene is taking its lead from the city's famously frenetic traffic. Things are happening everywhere all at once: old hotels are being renovated, new hotels are being opened, while boutique abodes and high-end hostels find novel ways to stand out from the crowd. A stay in Rome used to be about finding the right hotel, now it's about finding the perfect hotel. Whether you're looking for an all-inclusive resort, a discreet private penthouse, or a whimsical retreat filled with objets d'art, we've created a list that caters to every taste. Below, a roundup of Rome's top hotels for your next vacation.

Portrait Roma, from the Ferragamo family, is as pretty as a picture. On one of Rome's most fashionable streets, Via Bocca di Leone, mahogany doors open to a shiny hallway, complete with big, blowout black and white snaps of Salvatore Ferragamo himself. Up the stairs, the photographs keep on coming, leading to rooms as chic as the entrance. There are 14 luxury suites here, each with their own unique style. Everything's light and modern, and the separate kitchen area and lounge room make it feel like (your most luxurious) home. Oh, and the welcome Prosecco went down a treat. Portrait Roma is elegant and beautiful, but it's the personal touches that make it truly stand out. You can invite your friends up for a private party on the hotel terrace, or take advantage of the complimentary shopping card, which gives guests a 10% discount at Rome's most stylish boutiques—with extra sweet benefits if you shop at Ferragamo.
