Hip hotels, easy escapes and jaw-dropping journeys

ROOMS WITH A VIEW

When fashion and travel cross-pollinate, it can make a spectacular impact – and Hotel Lungarno is a perfect example. Founded by celebrated fashion house Salvatore Ferragamo, the hotel – which sits alongside the Arno river and overlooks Ponte Vecchio – reopened its doors after a six-month renovation, with 68 new spacious rooms and suites. Cuisine comes courtesy of Michelin-star restaurant Borgo San Jacopo, while, for art fanatics, a 400-piece collection includes works by Pablo Picasso, Antonio Bueno and Jean Cocteau.
