GRECIAN DELIGHT

Domes Noruz in Chania, which opened earlier this year, is the first Greek resort to be an honoree for its design at the Best of Year Awards, held by Interior Design magazine. The beachfront hotel is adults-only and has 83 rooms and suites, with architecture inspired by the Venetian heritage of Chania's old town. It combines traditional Cretan sandstone with modern touches such as Smeg fridges.

 STARCHITECT HOTELS

HOTEL AT SIX, SWEDEN
 At Six hotel is located in a former bank in Stockholm. Recently renovated by Universal Design Studio, the hotel houses some serious art, including pieces by Tacita Dean, Spencer Finch and Richard Long. The rooms are chic, too. hotelat6ix.com

MARQUÉS DE RISCAL, SPAIN
 Marqués de Riscal in Elciego, Spain, was transformed by the renowned Frank Gehry when he turned a former winery (established in 1858) into a huge complex, with a bizarre, cool exterior of huge multi-coloured titanium ribbons. It doesn't get more futuristic than this. hotel-marquesderiscal.com

HURAWALHI, THE MALDIVES
 Hurawalhi is a sustainability island resort in the Maldives. The island boasts 4,243 sq m of solar panels – roughly the size of 26 volleyball courts. The technology has been so cleverly and seamlessly integrated into the resort's architecture by New York-based architect, Yuji Yamazeki, it manages to look stylish.
