HOTEL LUNGARNO

FLORENCE, ITALY

ARRIVE

Fifty years since its first inauguration, Hotel Lungarno has been completely renewed and reopened its doors after six months of renovation. Without sacrificing its charm, the blue, white and leather found in its lobby reflect the style of an elegant boat swaying on the Arno with the Ponte Vecchio as its backdrop.

STAY

Boasting 65 luxury rooms and suites, many with beautiful terraces overlooking Renaissance masterpieces, the hotel is within walking distance of the city's most renowned boutiques, granting you the possibility to breath in the magic of Florence. The hotel offers luxury suites softened by beautiful light and surrounded by the reflections of the river Arno and the inspirational atmosphere of the medieval quarters of Florence. Indulge in a delightful and elegant setting comprising many details of Tuscan artisanship and an extraordinary art collection by Picasso, Cocteau and famous Italian artists.

DINE

Style and creativity are the basis of each dish, from the gourmet tradition at the Michelin-starred restaurant Borgo San Jacopo, in the heart of the Hotel Lungarno, to Italian flavors and cuisine with a contemporary approach at Portrait Firenze's Caffè dell'Oro, to the most exotic fantasies of The Fusion Bar & Restaurant, the black pearl of Gallery Hotel Art. And for a moment of absolute relaxation, two charming addresses: Picteau Cocktail Bar and La Terrazza rooftop bar.

ENJOY

Passion for art unites the world. The Hotel Lungarno presents itself as a private residence of a refined art collector, with over 400 pieces of the finest art of the 900's. Picasso, Cocteau, Bueno and many Italian artists such as Cassinari, Guidi, Fusi, Morlotti, Rosai, Sironi and Tosi create an exclusive and individualised atmosphere throughout this luxury hotel in Florence, the delightful rooms and suites, the charming living room and the inviting Lounge Bar Picteau.
