ROYAL NEGRONI

We are in Florence, 1919, at Caffè Casoni, when the Count Camillo Negroni, perhaps inspired by his trips to London, asks his fellow bartender Fosco Scarselli to strengthen his Americano cocktail by adding a “generous” part of gin instead of Soda water.

1950 Gordon gin, 1960 Carpano Classico rosso,
1970 Martini Rosso

CASINO ROYALE

The cocktail was invented in 1953 by Ian Fleming in the novel Casino Royale. The secret agent James Bond orders and names the cocktail after Vesper Lynd, the Bond girl he is in love with. This is where the famous sentence “Shaken not stirred” comes from.

1950 Gordon gin, 1970 Smirnoff Vodka,
1970 Martini Dry

CLASSIC MANHATTAN

The drink originated at the Manhattan Club in New York City in 1874, where it was invented by Iain Marshall for a banquet hosted by Jennie Jerome, mother of Winston Churchill, in honor of presidential candidate Samuel J. Tilden.

1980 Four Roses Bourbon,
1970 Carpano Punt&Mes, Angostura bitters

KENTUCKY JULEP

The Mint Julep was first mentioned in 1862 by Jerry Thomas in one of his books and it was already very popular in the beginning of the 1900's. In 1938 it became the official drink of the Kentucky Derby, one of the most important horse races which is held annually in May in Louisville.

1980 Four Roses, mint, sugar

THE BOULEVARDIER

It first appears in 1927 thanks to Erskyne Gwynne, an American-born writer who founded a monthly magazine in Paris called “The Boulevardier”, and his favourite barman Harry McElhone, escaped from the United States during the prohibition.

1980 Four Roses Bourbon,
1960 Carpano Classico rosso, 1960 Campari

SCOTTISH OUTLAW

The Rob Roy cocktail was named after an operetta that narrated in New York City in late 1800's, and a bartender at the nearby Waldorf Astoria Hotel created the cocktail for opening night and to publicise the play.

1970 Johnnie Walker Black Label 12 y.o.,
1960 Carpano Classico rosso, Angostura bitter

TADDEO GIN

Creato dai mixologist della Lungarno Collection, questo gin rende omaggio all'anima autentica della città. Ispirato a Taddeo Gaddi, artista e architetto del Trecento che contribuì alla costruzione di Ponte Vecchio, ne porta il nome come simbolo di ingegno e identità. Lavanda, ginepro, rosmarino, iris e ginestra si uniscono in un profilo aromatico raffinato, che racconta Firenze in ogni sorso.

Crafted by the mixologists of Lungarno Collection, this gin pays tribute to the city's true soul. Inspired by Taddeo Gaddi — 14th-century artist and architect who played a role in the creation of Ponte Vecchio — it bears his name as a symbol of ingenuity and identity. Lavender, juniper, rosemary, iris, and broom come together in a refined aromatic profile that captures the essence of Florence in every sip.
