The best hotels in Florence make it easy for visitors to take in the city's historic architecture, acclaimed restaurants and world-renowned museums and galleries. From climbing the Duomo to strolling through the Uffizi Gallery, history and culture can be found on every corner. This city is also home to many spectacular hotels across a variety of budgets.

I have lived in Florence and know the ins and outs of the destination well. My top hotel recommendation is the Four Seasons Hotel Firenze, thanks to its well-appointed rooms, lush on-site garden and Michelin-starred dining. For boutique lovers, I recommend the intimate AdAstra, while couples will love the romantic The Place Firenze. Below, the best hotels in Florence in 2025.

- Best Hotel In Florence Overall: Four Seasons Hotel Firenze
- Best High-End Hotel In Florence: Portrait Firenze
- Best Value Hotel In Florence: The Hoxton, Florence
- Best Boutique Hotel In Florence: AdAstra
- Best Hotel For Couples In Florence: The Place Firenze
- Best Hotel For Families In Florence: Hotel Savoy, A Rocco Forte Hotel
- Hotel With The Best Amenities In Florence: Ville sull'Arno
- Hotel With The Best Location In Florence: Il Tornabuoni Hotel
- Best Hotel Near The Duomo In Florence: Brunelleschi Hotel
- Best Hotel With A Pool In Florence: Grand Hotel Minerva

Best Hotel In Florence Overall: Four Seasons Hotel Firenze

Who Will Love It: Couples and families who high-end amenities in a serene setting

All-Star Amenities: Outdoor pool and whirlpool; complimentary poolside treats; plush robes and slippers (including kid-sized versions)

What Not To Miss: A tippie at vermouth bar Bar Berni followed by shared plates at Onde

Location: Borgo Pinti

Situated in a quiet sanctuary that overlooks the Gherardesca garden, this historic hotel housed in a Renaissance palazzo sits away from the hustle and bustle of Florence's main tourist areas. Despite its serene location, guests only need to walk 15 minutes before they reach a multitude of cultural sites, such as the famed Uffizi Gallery. There are amenities here for every type of age or travel style: Wellness lovers can enjoy the property's spa, foodies can wine and dine at the Michelin-starred Il Palagio and children can enjoy kids' menus, an on-site playground and acres of garden to roam in. The spacious marble bathrooms feel built for a Florentine aristocrat, and original frescoes can be found in six of the property's suites. Not to be missed is the recently opened Onde, a hip dining outlet focusing on seafood (with live DJ sets each evening).

Who Will Love It: Groups and families seeking white-glove service and impeccable river views

All-Star Amenities: In-suite fireplaces; kitchenettes; private terraces; Bianco di Carrara by Ferragamo bath products; iPads; hair straighteners

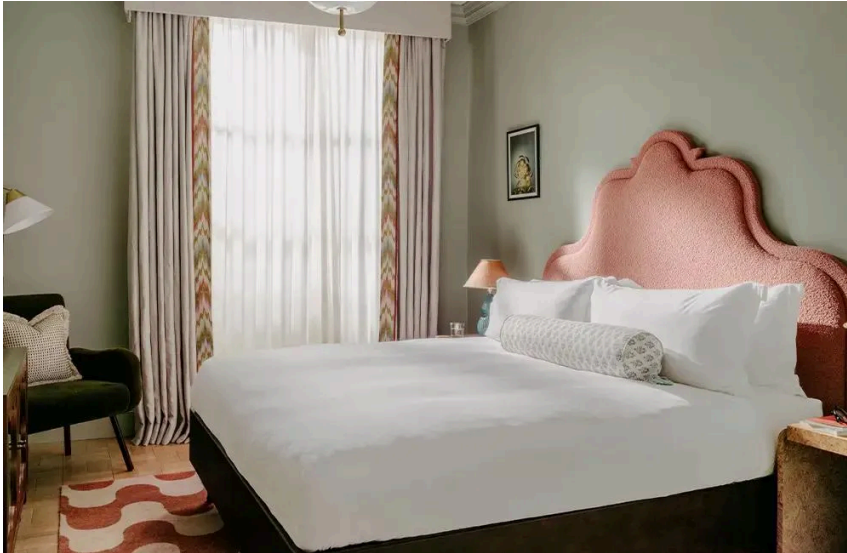

What Not To Miss: The daily deliver of fresh flowers

Location: Duomo district

Owned by the Ferragamo family, it's no surprise that this lavish all-suite hotel masters elegance and style. There are 37 accommodations to choose from, including a rooftop suite with breathtaking views and the Portrait Penthouse Floor, which is better suited for large groups or families. Each suite features top-tier amenities from the walk-in shower to plush couches with cashmere throw blankets and a roaring fireplace. The service is attentive and meticulous, and, as to be expected, the bath products here are exquisite—guests can luxuriate in Bianco di Carrara by Ferragamo soaps and toiletries. A stay here also includes a handful of other perks, including in-room flatirons, a private chef to whip up in-suite dinners and access to an exclusive rowing club.

Who Will Love It: Travelers seeking a stylish and well-located stay that doesn't break the bank

All-Star Amenities: Flexible check-in and check-out (choose your own time to check-in and out); rainfall showers; two dining options; sprawling garden terrace; underground event space

What Not To Miss: A long lunch at Alessio, which specializes in seafood

Location: Santa Maria Novella

Situated near the Piazza della Libertá in the heart of the city, the latest outpost of lifestyle hotel The Hoxton opened its doors in Florence this March. Its stylish and unpretentious rooms (most of which can be nabbed for under $300 a night) offer both Renaissance and contemporary styled décor, and the history of Florence is reflected in the property's architecture (the building once served as a residential palazzo in the 16th century). The plush beds, blackout curtains, rainfall showers and cozy sitting areas provide a place to unwind and ensure guests are well-rested for the duration of their stay. After a day of exploration, the property has two dining options: Alessio, which serves dishes inspired by Italy's coastal cuisine, and Enoteca Violetta, a wine bar with small plates like tomato bruschetta and mussels.

Who Will Love It: Travelers looking for an eclectic hotel in an artsy neighborhood

All-Star Amenities: Complimentary afternoon cake; oversized bathtubs; honesty bar; C.O. Bigelow bath products

What Not To Miss: The King Balcony Rooms with private terraces

Location: Oltrarno

This charming boutique hotel is nestled inside a mansion that overlooks Europe's largest privately owned garden within a city, making it a hidden gem. Each of the hotel's 14 rooms is decorated differently, but they all have antique furniture and amenities like Wi-Fi and an espresso machine. While some rooms open onto a wraparound terrace, others offer views of the sprawling garden beneath, with two immersed inside the garden. Guests can enjoy a complimentary breakfast spread during their stay or a glass of wine from the bar in the evening. For those looking to explore the sights and sounds of the city, the hotel is a 10-minute walk from the Ponte Vecchio and other galleries, cafés and restaurants.

Best Hotel For Couples In Florence: The Place Firenze

You can't go wrong with the Panoramic Duomo Loft, with its bathroom and private terrace overlooking Brunelleschi's cathedral dome.
THE PLACE FIRENZE

Who Will Love It: Romantics looking for an intimate hotel with local touches

All-Star Amenities: Rooftop terrace; bar with working fireplace

What Not To Miss: Touring an artisanal workshop with The Place of Wonders project

Couples looking for a romantic getaway will appreciate the atmosphere at The Place Firenze, which has cozy, well-decorated rooms and a welcoming atmosphere. While the property has 20 rooms, the Panoramic Loft (two levels and offers a view of the Piazza Santa Maria Novella) and the Duomo Penthouse are ideal for a romantic stay. The penthouse is a split-level loft with a contemporary design and elegant furniture. It's located on the top floor and has a private balcony and spacious bathroom with stunning city views. The hotel's restaurant is open all day and serves meals with fresh ingredients sourced from Tuscan producers. Guests will feel immersed in Florentine culture, whether stopping by for a quick drink or savoring a meal with friends.

Who Will Love It: Multigenerational groups seeking expansive suites and impeccable service

All-Star Amenities: Irene Forte Skincare toiletries; healthy minibar snacks; turn-down service

What Not To Miss: The “Art Hunt” experience, a kid-friendly treasure hunt designed in collaboration with the Uffizi Gallery

Location: Piazza della Repubblica

Hotel Savoy pampers both children and adults, making this sophisticated property one of the best family-friendly hotels in Florence. The spacious rooms, convenient location and kids program offer guests a relaxed, kid-friendly stay. A standout feature here is The Rocco Forte Kids program, which keeps little ones entertained with activities and special toys—they even have tiny bathrobes and slippers. Beyond entertainment at the hotel, the proximity to Piazza della Repubblica allows visitors to explore the carousel, neighboring cafés and street performers. The hotel’s concierge team can also organize family activities, from museum visits to bike tours through the bustling city streets.

Relax by the outdoor pool, pamper yourself with a massage at the spa, dine at the fabulous on-site restaurant, or borrow a bicycle to cruise around Florence.

VILLE SULL'ARNO

Who Will Love It: Free spirits craving a peaceful escape outside of the city center

All-Star Amenities: Outdoor swimming pool; spa with indoor swimming pool; complimentary bikes; in-suite jacuzzis; portable Wi-Fi routers to use in the city; free shuttle service to and from the city center

What Not To Miss: The cooking class with the hotel's chef

Location: Bellariva

This five-star resort, situated outside the city center, has breathtaking views of the nearby Arno River and an impressive list of amenities. Its 45 recently renovated rooms feature warm wood, Florentine marble and elegant furnishings. For travelers who want to splurge, the Riverview rooms feature walk-in showers and jacuzzis. Other amenities include an outdoor swimming pool, spa and wellness area (by booking a room at the hotel, you'll gain one hour of access to the wellness area daily), a fitness center and an on-site restaurant serving classic Tuscany dishes. For a truly unique experience, guests can rent The Greenhouse for a private dinner, a private tasting of local wines selected by the sommelier or a painting lesson.

In the summer, enjoy an aperitivo on the Butterfly Terrace, a rooftop bar with panoramic city views.
IL TORNABUONI HOTEL

Who Will Love It: Families; couples; business travelers looking for a convenient and stylish base

All-Star Amenities: In-suite wine cellars; pillow menu; kid-friendly amenities including cribs, baby toiletries, coloring books and crayons

What Not To Miss: The rooftop terrace with a bar and views of Florence

Location: Via de' Tornabuoni

Right in the heart of the action, the Il Tornabuoni Hotel is a quick walk from many of the city's popular attractions and shops, like the Piazza della Signoria and Uffizi Galleries. The property itself is located in a well-known palace that dates back to the 13th century, and the opulent furnishings are reminiscent of the Italian Renaissance. The jewel-toned colors, unique light fixtures and gold accents all transport you to a different time and place. There are 62 rooms and suites, with many looking out onto the bustling city streets below. Among its many amenities are in-room coffee machines, an on-call babysitting service and a full-service restaurant serving Tuscan cuisine. This hotel is also pet-friendly, so you don't have to leave your four-legged friend at home.

Best Hotel Near the Duomo In Florence: Brunelleschi Hotel

Who Will Love It: History lovers looking for a romantic stay with Duomo views

All-Star Amenities: Jacuzzis; walk-in closets; minibars with gluten-free products

What Not To Miss: The hotel's two Michelin-starred restaurant, Santa Elisabetta

The Duomo is a historic landmark in the city that thousands visit annually. For those who want to be close to this historic landmark, the Brunelleschi Hotel is nestled inside a circular tower and has lavish furnishings that will impress even the most discerning travelers. Inside, the 96 rooms are spacious and have all the comforts of home, from hypoallergenic pillows to a walk-in closet for all your belongings. Some rooms have their own balcony and look out over Brunelleschi's iconic dome. In terms of amenities, guests can dine at the two Michelin-starred restaurants, stroll through the property's private museum or sneak in a workout at the fitness center.

Best Hotel With A Pool In Florence: Grand Hotel Minerva

Who Will Love It: Those yearning for a mix of relaxation and history

All-Star Amenities: Rooftop swimming pool; in-suite complimentary Champagne; gym with panoramic views

What Not To Miss: The sunset views from the hotel's rooftop and the bar's signature Terrace Negroni

Location: Piazza Santa Maria Novella

Summers in Europe can get hot, and Grand Hotel Minerva's rooftop swimming pool provides a beautiful oasis in the heart of Florence. The heated pool offers stunning views of the bustling streets below and is open seasonally from April to October. Beyond the pool, there's plenty to love about this popular hotel: All 97 rooms and suites offer modern touches but still retain a glimmer of old-world charm and elegance. There are interconnecting rooms perfect for families, while couples might enjoy one of the suites with a private balcony and panoramic views. After a long day of sightseeing, guests can take advantage of the on-site caldarium (a hot plunge pool) and a dinner at La Buona Novella, the property's on-site restaurant.
