Casa Monti

Newcomer Casa Monti has quickly become the darling of the boutique Roman hospitality scene since opening in June 2024. The 36-room property pays homage to its namesake neighborhood (Rome's oldest!) that has a rich history of housing notable artists and intellectuals. The delightful, art-filled interiors designed by Laura Gonzalez lend a residential vibe that will further connect you to Monti's artistic legacy.

While its room count may be small, Casa Monti has no shortage of luxury amenities that make it a top destination for visiting aesthetes, including a rooftop wellness center overlooking the city which happens to be Rome's only Suzanne Kaufmann spa. There are three incredibly chic drinking and dining destinations on-site, and you'll want to be sure to ask the concierge about bespoke tours of the local neighborhood to explore the best art, shopping, and wine bars right outside your door.

Hotel de la Ville, A Rocco Forte Hotel

Atop the Spanish Steps lies Hotel de Russie's sister property, Hotel de la Ville, A Rocco Forte Hotel. The property feels more like a younger sibling with its vibrant interiors, buzzy rooftop bar that attracts locals and tourists alike, and its amenity-rich Irene Forte Spa that features all the buzzy wellness gadgets from ice showers and saunas to lymphatic drainage facial massages. Plus, you won't want to miss out on a spectacular meal at Café Ginori, in partnership with legendary porcelain brand Ginori 1735.

Beyond boasting an impeccable location that makes much of your must-do items in Rome mere steps away, Rocco Forte Hotels is known for its cleverly curated experiences for whatever you're into, be it private cooking and cocktail classes, contemporary art, or living out your "Roman Holiday" dreams on a vespa tour of the film's most iconic locations. The fabulous concierge can also help you find the best pizza, gelato, and basically anything else in town that the average tourist doesn't know about.

IK Place Roma

TOP 5 LUXURY HOTELS

One of Rome's most iconic boutique properties, J.K. Place Roma is a must-visit destination for design enthusiasts not just because it resides in the city's former school of architecture. Renowned architect Michele Bónan prioritized local craftsmanship at every turn, from the rosewood canopy beds in the 27 rooms and suites to the wood panel detailing featured throughout the 17th-century palazzo. Plus, the well-stocked library features everything from ancient literature to glossy hardcover design books, making it an ideal spot to cozy up with an afternoon aperitif and get your creative juices flowing.

Other amenities include the all-day JK Cafe featuring seasonally and locally driven fare, e-bikes to explore the natural beauty of Borghese Park, and a slew of one-of-a-kind curated guest itineraries. Our top pick? Personal shopping experiences that go off the beaten path in pursuit of the real "Made in Italy."

Hotel Eden

Since opening its doors in 1889, Hotel Eden has served as a benchmark for Roman hospitality and shines as brightly as ever as a member of Dorchester Collection. Offering 98 rooms and suites, this property has a legacy of hosting a rotating cast of characters, such as Ingrid Bergman and Sigmund Freud. Today, it continues to remain a glamorous refuge from the bustle of Roman life with its prime location just off the Spanish Steps and picturesque views of the Borghese Gardens and city skyline around every corner.

The hotel offers plenty of top-notch modern luxuries, such as the Michelin-starred La Terrazza, Eden Spa that features Valmont and Hôbe Pergh treatments, and a lively library that hosts a variety of exhibitions and creative workshops. However, an Old World spirit is still alive in the hotel as accommodations feature classic Italian furnishings, subtle patterns, and sumptuous fabrics that evoke the turn-of-the-century glamour.

Hotel Hassler

Located atop the Spanish Steps, Hotel Hassler has served as a haven for celebrities, royalty, and more since 1893 (Princess Diana famously claimed to have had the best Bellini ever there) and continues to top the list of Rome's most fabulous hotels. The 87 rooms and suites feature the finest in continental craftsmanship, from Venetian chandeliers to Limoges porcelain, that echo its late 19th-century origins while offering some of the finest modern luxuries in the Eternal City.

While the vibrant Salone Eva is a favorite of locals and well-seasoned travelers alike, Hotel Hassler's crown jewel is the Michelin-starred Imàgo, with panoramic city views as impressive as its menu. The covetable views continue throughout the hotel, notably at the Amorvero Spa, where guests can enjoy personalized workouts and treatments with its in-house skincare line. Don't forget to snag a bottle of the brand's signature perfume as the ultimate souvenir.

Portrait Roma

Courtesy Lungarno Collection

Part of the Ferragamo family's acclaimed Lungarno Collection of luxury boutique hotels, Portrait Roma naturally resides in a grand townhouse in the city's high fashion district (atop a Salvatore Ferragamo store, natch). Though the all-suite hotel is just home to 14 accommodations, there is a wide range of options to choose from, whether you're seeking a cozy studio inspired by '50s and '60s films or an amenity-rich penthouse (think: an in-room fitness equipment and sauna) that fits the whole family.

Celebrating the best in Italian art, design, and hospitality is at the heart of this hotel and you'll find delightful details at every turn, from original shoe sketches Salvatore Ferragamo created for the leading ladies of the midcentury to tailor-made itineraries to ensure you get the exact taste of Roma you're seeking. The terrace even offers a menu featuring dishes from the 15 best restaurants in the city, alongside a splendid rooftop Honor Bar atop one of the highest points of Via Condotti.

Palazzo Shedir

Mattia Aquilè

If opulence is what you're after in The Eternal City, the show-stopping Palazzo Shedir is here to please. One of the city's most exclusive hospitality destinations, the hotel resides in an immaculately restored wing of the Palazzo Borghese and houses just four accommodations each as decadent as the last.

While the hotel is small, it goes big on amenities, from the enchanting loggia that offers views of the Tiber River to the soundproofed disco room and bar for dancing the night away and the well-equipped wellness facilities for the morning after. If you need further convincing, the 24-hour butler is available upon request; however, you'll also have a personal assistant at your disposal to coordinate everything from special access to the Borghese Gardens to last-minute reservations at Rome's top dining destinations.

ANTONIO SABA

If you're looking for the comforts and nostalgia of a global resort brand but still want to indulge in the best Rome has to offer, this Waldorf Astoria property serves up just the thing. Rome Cavalieri, A Waldorf Astoria Hotel truly offers something for every type of traveler, from the city's only 3-Michelin star restaurant (with Heinz Beck at the helm) to one of the greatest art collections in the world and a wellness center you'll have to see to believe. Plus, the hotel offers a slew of one-of-a-kind excursions—if you can pry yourself off the property—such as Ryder Cup golf experiences and truffle hunting in Umbria.

Naturally, the rooms and suites are equally as impressive as the hotel's amenities, many boasting gracious rooftop terraces with whirlpools, prominent artworks, high-tech baths, and even private wine cellars. Rome Cavalieri makes a great pick for families with its wide range of accommodation sizes, a dedicated kids' club, and a massive pool deck with sweeping city views that will please all ages.

Villa Agrippina Gran Meliá

This one's for families who are seeking both luxury and authenticity, along with all the kid-friendly amenities to ensure everyone has a vacation to remember. Villa Agrippina Gran Meliá. While it's the closest hotel in the city to the Vatican and Sistine Chapel, it feels worlds' away (in the best way), thanks to the abundance of green spaces and a crowd-pleasing pool deck when everyone needs a break from sightseeing and shopping.

The hotel offers a wide variety of accommodations, from rooms and suites to apartments and villas, that suit every party that enters its doors. Each highlights the artistic and natural beauty that has kept Rome a top travel destination for hundreds of years. It's also an excellent pick for discerning travelers seeking something new from the city; Villa Agrippina offers once-in-a-lifetime experiences, ranging from private golf cart food tours to yacht trips to Ponza, the city's secret island.
